GIANTS DEFEATED. SMASH BY TONEY

Tesreau Has Two Similar Chances, but Each Time He Has No Luck.

McGRAW'S MEN MISS EARLY OPPORTUNITY

Although the game was about as Cincinnati. There wasn't much to choose between the pitching of Tesreau and Toney. The Reds got nine blows off big Jeff. New York nicked Toney for seven. Both pitchers were smartly supported at times. At other times not so smartly. There were plenty of errors but they didn't cut a great deal of a figbut they didn't cut a great deal of a fig-ure. Taken altogether the victory fell just about where it belonged on the merit of the play. Groh opened the battle with a fine double to right field. He advanced on Neales out and tallied on Chase's single, which Kauff fumbled, giving Hal second base. Doyle made a wonderful one handed catch of Wingo's terrific liner and by a quick toss to Fletcher doubled Chase off the midway. No club ever had a beter chance to make a cleanup than did the Giants in ard luck has. No club ever had a beter chance to make a cleanup than did the Giants in their half of this opening inning. But hard luck base running killed the opening. Burns walked and sprinted to third when Eddie Roush shot a long single to right. Roush immediately went down on a contemplated double steal, but Mal Eason got in the way just as the runner was about to slide. The umpire bumped the runner so badly he had to go after the bag standing up. In fact, Roush was knocked completely off his course and proved an easy victim of Wingo's throw to Herzog. The pity of it was that Doyle walked on the second pitch there-McGraw became desperate and urns for home on Kauff's short fly It was sure death when the right gardener made a perfect peg.

the box with one out. When Herzog rapped to the same spot Larry Doyle rapped to the same spot Larry buffed Tesreau's throw for an forced play. Tesreau, however, saved himself with a fine stop and throw on Louden. Toney fouled to Rariden. Roush singled with one out in the third, but died stealing. Wingo and Griffith singled cleanly with none out in the fourth. Tesreau might easily have foiled them but for McKechnie's muff. The big fellow pounced on a dribbler from Mollwitz and shot the ball to third base for a force out. The throw was a bit wide, but McKechnie lost it through Chicago. June 5.—Manager Donovan of the Yankees sent another left hander against the White Sox to-day and again his team pulled the props from under the town boys. went after that record at Ebbets Field yesterday afternoon. They didn't quite equal it, but they accomplished something almost the same getting two runs on fourteen hits, which included a pair of doubles. In addition the Dodgers son bails, all of which meant little to the record chasing Pittsburgers Brooklyn, by the way of contrast, departed from its usual methods of outbatting the other side and losing the game. Withert Robinson's charges made only five hits to Pittsburg's fourteen, but won the game by a score of 3 to 2.

Young Frank Miller from Montreal pitched so well for the Pirates that Brooklyn didn't get more than one hit in any inning. The Dodgers were resourceful, though, and grasped the only good opportunities presented to taily. Davider's three bagger in deep centre with one out in the first inning was followed by Stenge's long sacrifice fly to Baird on which the captain trotted home.

because Gedeon had gone over to sec-ond to take care of Felsch's steal. Felsch had forced Jackson, and the drive sizzled through a lane that Gedeon had been guarding a moment before. Felsch kept on to third and Gilhooley's wild and needless throw al-lowed him to keep on some more, as far as the plate in fact. In the last three innings only nine batters faced Cullop. The score:

The fourth hit of the inning was a single by Schultz, which put Hinchman on third. It looked dark for Smith, but his support saved him when Baird rapped a hot one to Cutshaw, who touched second for a force and threw to first for a double play.
